DONOR
IMPACT
REPORT

Dear Friends,

Incredible support from a great community means that last school year (2021-2022), the Park City Education Foundation infused more than $1.5 million into Park City schools.

PCEF launched in 1986 with one STEM-focused Teacher Grant of $2,000. Teacher Grants have evolved to Classroom Grants in the nearly 40 years since (with more than 840 grants awarded in that time!), but it remains the same in that every bit goes directly into classrooms and positively impacts every single Park City student.

Donor support allows PCEF to provide the “power” in educator-powered programming. Educators like Park City High School English teacher Melissa Nikolai share feedback like this:

“I don’t know what I would do without PCEF. It serves me so I can serve my kids... They trust me for thinking outside the box. They trust me.” — Melissa Nikolai, PCHS English Teacher

When educators have support to bring innovative ideas, concepts, or practices to life, they are better able to prepare our students for the time when they take their place as the world’s innovators, problem-solvers, and leaders — and meet their extraordinary potential.

We can’t imagine a more powerful impact than that.

With gratitude,

Abby McNulty
PCEF President and CEO
